

Government Institute of Forensic Science, Nagpur

Code of Ethics

The Faculty Members, the Students and Researchers:

- Should properly acknowledge and cite the use of the ideas, results, material or words of others, and should properly acknowledge all contributors to a given piece of work.
- Should make sure that, all work submitted as his or her own, in a course or other academic activity, is original and unduplicated.
- Should obtain data or results should be obtained by ethical means and report them accurately without suppressing any results inconsistent with his or her interpretation or conclusions.
- Should desist from reproducing, in whole or part, text/sentences from a report, book, thesis, publication or the internet also one's own previously published data, illustrations, figures, images, or someone else's data, etc. without obtaining appropriate permissions from the copyright holder(s).
- Should give proper citations to the material for incorporating material from the internet graphs, drawings, photographs, diagrams, tables, spreadsheets, computer programs, or other non-textual material from other sources into one's class reports, presentations, manuscripts, research papers or thesis.
- Should not involve in Self plagiarism which constitutes copying verbatim from one's own earlier published work in a journal or conference proceedings without appropriate citations.
- Should not fabricate (make up) or falsify (manipulate) data and report them in thesis and publications.
- Should not create sources, or citations that do not exist.
- Should not alter previously evaluated/submitted/ published materials and re-submit the work for re-evaluation.
- Should check their manuscript/dissertation, etc. for plagiarism using appropriate software(s).
- Should follow the latest guidelines/regulations/code of Professional ethic of the Institute/University/ UGC \(Promotion of Academic Integrity and Prevention of Plagiarism in Higher Educational Institutions\) Regulation, 2018 & their amendments.