No suggestions

More class activities can be conducted, opportunities can be discussed, mentorship can be improved

No suggestions!

1. Encourage more field visits for new experience and exposure. 2. Providing more opportunities for internships. 3. Adapting to more interesting and friendly approaches for teaching.

1. Provide proper notes

1) Labs should be properly maintained. 2) Field visits should be arranged 3) Projector, computer system should be properly maintained.

Make the concept easy

There must be more activities other than studies like some kind of competition on regular basis to improve the soft skills.

Field visits, Forensic related seminars competition, etc

1. Presentations will help to understand more easily.

Be understanding

A healthy environment regarding teaching is expected. Syllabus completion is also important.

1) use of chalk-board method for physics teaching.

Have to encourage the students for making carrier in forensic science

All teachers are very good in teaching

1. Opportunities should given to all the students it should not be partial. 2. Syllabus should be covered within time with their own notes. 3. The institute should give personal space to the students and maintain the decency of a teacher and a student .

Give assignments ,projects to the students. Students should be taken to the field visit .

Student interaction must be there, one should provoke best in their subject and some subject are not completed till exams .

I am expecting 1. Chapter wise class tests 2. Weekly assignments 3. Interactive teaching, from the institution, in a strict manner, so that below average students like me will start studying from the very beginning of semester and not study a day before examination, thank you

More focus on soft skills, teach about the real life, use more student learning approach

1. Need field visits to experience practical knowledge. 2. More internship program related to course should be introduced. 3. More activities to improve soft skills of students.

The institute teachers should find the weaknesses of students and should help them to overcome it .

Environment should be more strict.

1. Use black board while explaining.

Mentoring should be taken seriously. Soft skills should be encouraged to develop.

1.use black board while explaining any difficult concept

Effective Communication and Fair internal Grading System

Teachers should use black boards and have a proper lesson planning...

None

Should take test series more regularly.

1)should complete whole syllabus 2)some teachers should improve their teaching skills 3) institution and teachers should encourage in extracurricular activities....

Internships have to be conduct

Use more example , want to have more effective teaching and want more practical knowledge and visits

1. More field visits would be appreciated.

Internship should be compulsory for final year students

The overall teaching - learning is good.No.suggesgion.

Give more importantans to that students whose uncomfortable to ask

1) regular classes should be conducted of some subjects 2) internship should be provided through institute 3) proper practicals of some subjects should taken

1. Take pre-exam tests, 2. Use more real life examples during teaching, 3. Give importance to sports

The research field should be develope in college

To explain the topics thoroughly in intresting way

Everything is perfect

Teacher try to get better at teaching ,use more examples to understand clearly, use white board to teach.

More workshops, educational visits and guest lectures should be arranged.

Use blackboard

Not required

1)All teaching staff are really good 2) All teachers are supportive and encouraging 3) All teachers have friendly nature

Practical exposure should increase, conduct tests frequently,

More understanding and less judgement reserved for students, more open-minded and welcoming discussions with students, and a more sincere attitude towards enriching our educational experience and invoking our curiosity.

They should be understanding to students

1. The teachers never complete the syllabus on time . 2. The institute does not support any kind of extra curricular activities,they only shows that they are supporting but they give us less internals if we participate . 3. They do not use any practical means to teach.

Proper notes,

No

Non

Teacher's should teach with more examples and case studies and should be more more forensic oriented than general science teaching .

Teachers should be enthusiastic to teach. Pratical teaching through experiments and real life examples should be included. Internships and employment measures should be taken

Test series practice should be compulsory after completing each unit.

The teachers should use a proper way to teach a student

All good, no suggestions

Encourage and support students in fields other than study also.

No suggestions, because the overall teaching – learning experience in our institution is good enough.

1.Partiality should be avoided.
